

Newday Behaviour Agreement

- 1) I will treat all leaders and other young people and property with respect
- 2) I will attend every morning and evening meeting unless prearranged with a leader
- 3) I will also turn up promptly for all meals, unless prearranged with a leader
- 4) I will comply with the Newday site rules
- 5) I understand that no one of the opposite sex is allowed in my tent and will not let them in
- 6) I am aware that if another youth group or the Newday organisers complain about me I can be sent straight home

There will be a Yellow and Red card system in place:

- First offence: Verbal warning
- Second offence: Yellow card and a sanction (e.g chores for the day) and we will ring your parents
- If a second Yellow card is issued, it becomes a Red card and you will be sent home. Your parents will have to collect you within 12 hours.

The card system resets each day, but consistent breaking of the rules will result in a Red Card. The leaders reserve the right to immediately Red card and send you home if they feel your behaviour is seriously inappropriate.

Some examples of actions that invoke an immediate Red card are:

- Going off site without permission
- Violence
- Illegal activity
- Sexual activity
- Any actions that bring you, your family, or the church, into disrepute

Young person's agreement: I agree to these rules and I will follow them. I fully understand that breaking these rules can result in me being sent home.

Parent/Carer's agreement: I agree to these rules and I have read the rules with my child/ward. If my child/ward is sent home, I will collect them and remove them from the Newday site within 12 hours. If I am going to be away, I will ensure that I have a definite arrangement in place for someone else to collect them within 12 hours and look after them until my return.
